Frank Hutchins A Warrior for the People

Frank Hutchins' life is a true testament of one born dedicated to fighting in behalf of community and the rights of children, seniors, families--tenants.

Born and raised in Philadelphia Pennsylvania, Mr. Hutchins attended Germantown Highschool. Upon completing his high-school studies Frank completed two years at Temple University. He pursued subsequent educational development attending Rutgers University, Union College, and the University of Pennsylvania where he focused his studies on community organizing and housing. Upon completing his studies Frank moved to New Jersey, beginning his life's work as a servant and warrior for the people.

Over his thirty years of service, Frank Hutchins has volunteered and led the activities of numerous organizations; Director of the Christian Education of Calvary Baptist Church, Morristown, 1958, Chairman of the "Hoopia Committee" South Ward, Newark during the Gibson for Mayor Campaign, Candidate for the 29th Assembly District, Newark, 1973, Registration Chairman, "Education for Liberation Conference", Afrikan Education Alliance, Newark, 1973, District Leader of the Southward Numbers 26 & 29,

Civic activities have included Chairing the Essex County Clients Council, The Human Development Committee, Education Task Force of the New Jersey Black Assembly; the Bessie Smith Community Health Center, the Committee for a Unified New Ark Community Council and Essex-Newark Legal Services. Membership with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, National Urban League, the Black Merit Academy, New Jersey Tenants Organization, Newark Emergency Services for Families Frank has been past president of the New Jersey's Head Start, Friends Association, Friends of Weequahic Park; the past vice president of Of Weequahic High School Parent; Teachers Association and United Community Corporation ( Anti-Poverty Agency). Today he is the Director of the Greater Newark HUD Tenant Coalition. He is a proud member of the First Baptist Church of Nutley. His greatest loves are his birth family, church family and the many people he has served. A true Warrior for the People Mr. Frank Hutchins.
